To

CATHERINE LINDSAY KNORR

who suggested that I "do Louisa first" and lent every help, making my work a pleasure.

Louisiana was established in 1762 from the territory of Louisiana which was transferred to France by the Treaty of Paris in 1763. The territory was divided into two parts, the western part which was to become the State of Louisiana and the eastern part which was to become the State of Mississippi.

When Louisiana was formed, the territory was divided into parishes. The first parish was St. Charles parish, which was established in 1764. The other parishes were established later. The parishes were: St. Charles, St. John, St. James, St. Landry, St. Martin, St. Mary, St. Michael, St. Patrick, St. Peter, St. Thomas, St. Vincent, and St. Louis.

The marriage records for Louisiana are contained in the Louisiana State Library. The records are arranged by parish and by date. The records are: St. Charles parish, 1764-1800; St. John parish, 1764-1800; St. James parish, 1764-1800; St. Landry parish, 1764-1800; St. Martin parish, 1764-1800; St. Mary parish, 1764-1800; St. Michael parish, 1764-1800; St. Patrick parish, 1764-1800; St. Peter parish, 1764-1800; St. Thomas parish, 1764-1800; St. Vincent parish, 1764-1800; and St. Louis parish, 1764-1800.

In that era marriages were authorized by 'bond' and by 'banns'. Bonds were registered at the Court House of the county in which the bride lived. Banns were registered in the Church Register. The Church Register was the only way we had that marriages were performed from 1764 to 1800. Note how few marriages are recorded in 1764 and in 1777.

Gratitude is expressed to the librarians at the Virginia State Library and to Mr. L. A. Keller, Clerk of Louisiana County Court, for their courtesy and help.

This book is offered hoping to help those interested in families of this area.
